8 Insiders list. Requirements for maintaining and handing over insiders list of OJSC MMK

8.1 OJSC MMK shall maintain and update the Insiders List.

8.2 The person responsible for maintaining and updating of OJSC MMK's Insiders List shall be the Corporate Secretary.

8.3 Procedure of inclusion of persons into the Insiders List:

8.3.1 The head of a department shall appoint a person responsible for the inclusion/exclusion of employees into/from the list of persons having access to the insider information, by issuing a respective resolution. The department head shall determine the employees of its department who have access to insider information. A hard copy of the list of insiders signed by the department head, shall be handed over to the Corporate Secretary on the day following a day when grounds for inclusion of such employees into OJSC MMK's Insiders List appeared, at the latest.

8.3.2 Based on a letter from the department head, the Corporate Secretary shall prepare the notification of physical person's inclusion/exclusion in/from OJSC MMK's Insiders List (Annex No. 1.1, 1.2) which is delivered to him/her against his/her signature (if he/she is OJSC MMK's employee) or by mail, telegram, teletype or e-mail which allows to establish the fact of the notification's delivery. The notification to a legal person (Annex No. 1.3) shall be sent by the Corporate Secretary by mail. The notification shall be sent within 7 (seven) working days after the inclusion/exclusion of a person into/from OJSC MMK's Insiders List.

The members of the management bodies shall notify the persons closely related to them of their responsibilities in compliance with these Regulations and shall keep the copies of such notifications.

8.3.3 If a hard copy of the notification of a person's inclusion in OJSC MMK's Insiders List is sent, the copy of the notification signed by the notified person shall be promptly handed over by a responsible person to the Corporate Secretary.

8.3.4 The Corporate Secretary shall keep records of all notifications sent in accordance with paragraph 8.3.3. The complete information with regard to notifications sent shall be kept by OJSC MMK five years from the date of person's exclusion from the list.

8.4 The list of legal persons having access to insider information of OJSC MMK shall be drawn up by the Corporate Secretary upon conclusion of the agreements with such persons based on the information provided by the department head responsible for such agreements.

8.4.1 The heads of divisions responsible for the agreements according to which insider information can be shared shall submit to the Corporate Secretary the Counterparties List to such agreements and, at the request of the Corporate Secretary, the lists of OJSC MMK's counterparties' insiders having access to insider information relating to OJSC MMK directly or indirectly on a need-to-know basis as well as information as defined in paragraphs 8.5.1 and 8.5.2 of these Regulations. Heads of divisions responsible for the relevant agreements shall ensure inclusion of the standard provision in the agreements which establishes the procedure of preparation and submission by OJSC MMK's counterparties of the list of insiders having access to insider information relating to OJSC MMK directly or indirectly, on a need-to-know basis (Annex 2).

Annex No. 2

Obligatory Standard Clause to Be Included in Agreements with Counterparties Having Access to Insider Information Directly or Indirectly Relating to OJSC MMK

With a view of complying with the information disclosure rules and facilitating timely provision by counterparties of a list of their insiders having access to insider information directly or indirectly relating to OJSC MMK on a need-to-know basis (hereinafter as the Counterparty's Insiders List), the contracting parties must ensure that the following provisions are included in the above agreements:

OJSC MMK undertakes to:

- inform a counterparty in a timely manner of the insider nature of the information provided by OJSC MMK;

- promptly inform a counterparty of the necessity to make a Counterparty's Insiders List and specify the exact date of the List's provision.

OJSC MMK's counterparties undertake to:

- promptly make and update the Counterparty's Insiders List;

- ensure the keeping of the Counterparty's Insiders List;

- provide the Counterparty's Insiders List to OJSC MMK by the date specified by OJSC MMK;

- take all necessary steps to ensure that each person on the Counterparty's Insiders List confirms that he/she is aware of their legally imposed duties and of the legal sanctions applicable for improper use or divulging of OJSC MMK's Insider Information;

- appoint a chief contact person responsible for making and updating of the Counterparty's Insiders List and its timely provision to OJSC MMK;

- ensure that all the documents provided by OJSC MMK and containing insider information are returned or, if such information was not disclosed in accordance with the established procedure by the date of expiration of contract, provide documentary evidence that the above have been destroyed after the date of expiration of contract.

OJSC MMK has the right to provide the information on the persons having access to its insider information (Counterparty's Insiders List) to the securities market operators through which operations with OJSC MMK's securities are performed and the competent federal executive body for financial markets upon their written requests according to an established procedure.

Use of insider information by the persons who became aware of such information for the purpose of making transactions with OJSC MMK's securities is an offence and entails liability of these persons in accordance with the laws in effect.

All the conditions of confidentiality are applied to insider information.
